NO MEMBERSHIP MEETING

REport - Reed Kryder

THERE IS NO JULY MEMBERSHIP MEETING

This edition of REMarks will include some updates targeting our membership. Whether you are a Board member or not please contact me with your thoughts and opinions.

Nelson Ledges Road Course has been paved. Great progress has been made, but a lot still needs to be done before SCCA racing returns. Meantime there are track day events scheduled and I suggest you stop by and take a look, maybe even participate.

We have scheduled a Tire Rack Street Survival at Boardman Park on October 29. John Gingery is still spearheading the effort. Paul Morrison has taken over promotions. Brian Vondran and his wife are going to be contacting Boardman High School. We need as many participants as we can acquire. Spread the word. And keep the date open for helping with the event.

At one point in time Scott Nutter was going to look into a MVR get-together at a Pitt Race Track Night in America. Any updates?

Bill Pintaric has volunteered his horse facility for a future meeting, but he would like to schedule it after he has moved into his new house on the property. It could happen later this year.

See you August 1st at the membership meeting,
