REport – Brian Vondran

Slowly but surely, winter is starting to move out and spring is starting to move in. In true Mahoning Valley tradition, it was 70 degrees last week and this week it's snowing. Soon the pollen will replace the snow on our cars, and we'll know it's really time to go racing. For once, the season in this part of the world is fairly front-end loaded.

In April, NEOHIO is hosting a Time Trial at Nelson Ledges and Steel Cities is hosting a Super Tour at Pitt Race the following weekend.

In May, Nelson Ledges will host the first ever event under the SCCA's new endurance program. Then we will host our regional race at Nelson Ledges during the Labor Day weekend.

The timing and size of these events will put a strain on our volunteer team. If you're available one of these weekends, please give consideration to coming out to support one of these events and maybe pick up a new specialty in the process. I know we can always use help on the corners, in the tower for T&S.

Street Survival

I'd really like to rekindle our Tire Rack Street Survival program, but I just don't have time to do it. If you're interested in taking on and growing the program; I'd love to hear from you.

Best wishes,
Brian
