REport - Reed Kryder

Elections for 2016 were held at our October Membership meeting. Not much changed. I would like to thank outgoing Trustee Paul Morrison for his services. Paul is always a great source of guidance. The new Trustee is Chris Bell. There was also a little shifting between 1-year and 2-year Trustees.

The NEDiv Mini-Con is scheduled for November 13-15. Even if you are not planning to attend you might want to stop by our November 3rd Membership Meeting if you want something followed at the Mini-Con.

There is a Tire Rack Street Survival program scheduled for Burke Lakefront Airport (Cleveland) on November 14 and 15. This is not a MVR event, but I told the organizers I would pass the word along to our members in case anyone was available to help. Check on the Street Survival site for more information.

So what will Sandi and I be doing the November 14 weekend? We will be at Daytona helping David Pintaric try to crack through to that first Trans Am win he so richly deserves. He already has a Second and a Third. We will also be cheering on MVR member Amy Ruman as she goes for the TransAm Championship. It could be a big day for MVR pro level drivers.

The Annual SCCA National Convention is scheduled for January 21-23, 2016. Sandi and I are currently planning on attending. They do have an interesting program called the "Ascender". For every three registered (paid) attendees a Region has they will receive a fourth FREE. I look at this as a way to get a 25% discount for each attendee if we reach four. Sandi and I make two. Do we have others?

MVR has reserved Boardman Park on Sunday, April 17 for our next Tire Rack Street Survival event. I asked last month and I will ask again: Are there any car shows (new or otherwise) scheduled for South Park Mall during the winter? Does anyone have contact with a dealer or other person involved with one of these shows? Please pass along info to myself and John Gingery. This location would be an excellent location to promote TRSS and MVR.

See you November 3rd at the meeting (good food and good times),
