Important MVR dates to Remember:

Oct. 5                      Street Survival - Boardman Park

REport

For many of you the racing season is over. A few are looking forward to one or two more opportunities to wear out some tires. A few of you will be traveling west for the Run-Offs. But for most of you it is time to start unwinding from the 2014 season. And I have a suggestion for a great way to unwind.

On Sunday, October 5th Mahoning Valley Region will hold another Tire Rack Street Survival event at Boardman Park. If you have helped in the past you know how fulfilling this event is from an emotional side. Doing something worthwhile for new drivers, seeing their progress throughout the day, and hearing their comments when it is over creates a very warm and fuzzy feeling of having done something important. If you haven't helped in the past, this is your opportunity. You won't regret it. Information can be found at www.street-mvr.org.

Another TRSS note: We still have room for more students. It is preferred for participants to register through the national program, but walk-ins are welcome. We would appreciate a phone call (Sandi - 330-854-4889) if possible. And while the program targets teenagers, adults are also welcome to participate as students. Please look around, find a friend who could benefit, and have them call Sandi.

Were you at the MVR races on September 27-28? Many of your fellow members raced and helped put on a very successful weekend which included some of the best weather seen during the entire year. Our treasurer is crunching the numbers and we probably lost a little, but thanks to several factors it might not be as much as predicted. You will need to attend the October 7th membership meeting to hear stories.

There is another reason to attend the October 7th meeting. It is time to elect new officers. I know some members like to stay away from these meetings because they feel they may be talked into running for an office. We already have candidates running for every position. What we would really appreciate is you participating by voting. If you want to run for an office, you can still be nominated.

See you then,
Reed Kryder

Nelson Ledges Chaplains Notes September 2014 Passion

If you follow Formula 1 on TV, you have heard the likeable Brit Will Buxton as the onsite and pit road reporter. (Why do you have to have an accent to get the good jobs?) When he is not at the races he occasionally does some lifestyle shows on F1. Earlier this spring, Will and his producer got to take the Road to Ferrari. Picking up a loaner Ferrari FF after the Hungarian Grand Prix (don't we all), they took a road trip to Maranello. Along the way they stopped at a passionate master coach builder, the Carrozzeria Franco. There Will drove a classic Fiat 500. When one of the owner brothers was offered the chance to drive the Ferrari he declined. Why? He had just got his license back and did not want to lose it again.

Next stop was Pininfarina, the family owned designer with the historic ties to Ferrari and a passion for beautiful cars and coincidentally the designer of the FF. Then, it was on to Monza, home of the most passionate F1 fans in the world and a chance to see the dangerous banking of the old track. Finally, after nearly 1,000 miles in the FF (such torture), they arrived at Ferrari, the place Will had dreamed of since he was 10 years old. A factory tour was followed by a stop at the gift shop (a man after my own heart.) After came a viewing of the cars of the Corse Clenti. Oh to be one of the fortunate ones who can afford to belong. Membership has a lot better privilege than American Express. They get to buy and drive recent or historic Ferrari racing cars at speed on track. Could it get any better than that?

For Will, it did when they visited Classiche, where the history of Ferrari lives. Amazingly, there on shelves were books that showed the parts drawing from all Ferraris since the start in 1945. Then Will slid into a real Ferrari 512, the car he had as a slot car. Finally he had a chance to sit in the car of his childhood dreams, the Ferrari Dino. His joy and emotion showed the passion that it the common bond of car guys and girls.

Do you know that God is passionate for you? You will see if you give Him a chance to show it.
